

Bring Your Own Device! Engaging Music Teaching Apps For ANY Device!

MTNA 2016 - San Antonio, Texas

Linda Christensen, Ph.D.

Lindathepianist@gmail.com

Sites demonstrated:

Chrome Music Lab

Twelve different activities for any age to explore pitch, rhythm, sound. You should try them yourself - they are very engaging!

<https://musiclab.chromeexperiments.com/Experiments>

Whirligig Games

Online, interactive games on Rhythm, notes, symbols, and world music. Students can play on any device, and the physical board games are also available.

<http://onlineaccess.keystoimagination.com/home.php>

Theta Music Trainer

The first three levels of many of the games can be played for free without setting up an account. You can also play the first three levels of all games, record your scores and track your progress simply by creating a free account.

<http://trainer.thetamusic.com/en/content/music-training-games>

PBS Kids

Online games for all subjects, but the music ones are very clever. All games feature well-known kids characters like Daniel Tiger.

<http://pbskids.org/games/music/>

Tonic Tutor

Note reading, Theory, and Ear Training games. Free for you and 10 of your students, with the option to upgrade for more students.

<https://www.tonictutor.com/games/demo>

New York Philharmonic Kids Zone

<http://www.nyphilkids.org/games/main.phtml>

Collection of short music games

Most are free. A nice collection.

<http://interactivesites.weebly.com/music-fun.html>

Music Learning Community

Not free, but there are a few free games to try before subscribing.

<http://www.musiclearningcommunity.com/freegames.html>